

The strange night

This story happened a long time ago, while I was coming back to my house with my friends at the bus stop. We were talking about what we would wear on halloween, when suddenly I noticed a flash in my face, but it was impossible because we were the only ones there. Then I felt a shaking chills over my body, I ignored the advises, perhaps because I was very tired to think about it.

When I arrived home, I had a bad feeling, but I ignored it another time. It was late so I was eating alone seeing tik toks, suddenly I saw the food of the dog over the counter, “They don’t remember to feed the dog perhaps”, so i went out calling the dog, but he didn’t appear. I didn’t think much where he could be, he probably was somewhere in the garden. Besides the trash was coming a horrible smell, “we will have to take it out tomorrow”.

After washing my dish and having a shower I went to sleep. Afterwards, when it was 3 am I heard a noise in my window. It was very dark to see something in my room so I turned on the lights and I went to the window to see what was going on. At first I only saw his fluorescent green eyes, then I saw his dark clothes with some spots of blood. Finally I saw his hands, one carrying a big knife stained with more blood with, and another holding a dog’s tail. At the beginning I hadn’t any reaction, next some tears started to fall, eventually I was crying without being able to stop. The dog’s tail was MY dog’s tail. He was with a very recent photo of me in his teeth as if he was trying to protect it from something...
